Subject: Two Days Online Training on "Good Governance and Transparency through RTI Act 2005" from 9th to 10th September, 2021 at 11:00 AM -5:00 PM (Indian Time). - Request for Nominations.

National Productivity Council is an autonomous organization under the Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Govt. of India. NPC plays a catalytic role in productivity promotion by undertaking consultancy, training and research assignments in frontier areas of management and technology oriented disciplines. National Productivity Council is organizing a Two-Day Online Training on "Good Governance and Transparency through RTI Act 2005" from 9th to 10th September, 2021 at 11:00 AM -5:00 PM (Indian Time).

About Online Training:

The prime objective of Good Governance is to promote transparency and to create accountability among public servants, in order to contain corruption. In this connection GOI has enacted a Law called "Right to Information" in 2005. The Act provides for a practical regime of right to information for citizens to secure access to information under the control of public authorities, in order to promote transparency and accountability in the working of every public authority, the constitution of a Central Information Commission and State Information Commission and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto. It has also helped the public authorities to streamline their information systems and office productivity.

The Two-Day Online training is going to deal with the principles of Good Governance and the provisions under the RTI Act along with the role of various stakeholders in promoting transparency in administration of Public Authorities.
