Subject: Arrangements during official functions – regarding

Sir,

I am directed to refer to the subject cited above and to inform you that Government has taken a decision that no bouquet shall be presented to the dignitaries at any official function. At best, small bunch of flowers wrapped in paper sleeve (not more than four flowers) or a plant sapling in a flower pot or a Khadi handkerchief or a book may be presented to welcome the dignitary. No plastic material shall be used to wrap any of these items.

2. This may be brought to notice of all concerned for strict compliance.

Yours faithfully,

Superintendent Protocol,
for Chief Secretary to Government, Haryana.
